CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1945, one hundred twenty-nine green "Freshies" entered the portals of CCHS. This group was to be known as, "The Class of 1949."

Miss Sternberg was our capable adviser during the Freshman year. Martha Moots, Jim Williams, Bob Callison, and Bill Mahoney were the members of the Freshman Council. Our first high school party was held in the gymnasium. Chauncey McCrory captured both prizes: - one for having the best signatures of upperclassmen and the other for the best costume. Can anyone ever forget the Freshman Assembly? That chorus line was really something!

In the fall of 1946, some of us decided to grow up, and become Sophomores. During this year, Martha Moots, Mary Jane Jackson, Bob Callison, and Jim Williams were the members of the Sophomore Council. Miss Marshall was our adviser this year.

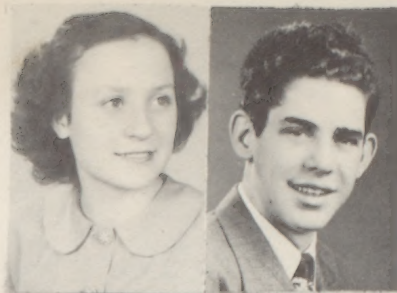

Juniors at last---things began to happen then. Lyle Sharp, Jim Bishop, Virginia Lisenby, and Dorlene Warrick were our class officers. Miss Fort was our adviser. This year marked one of the most successful junior plays of past years. The title was "A DATE WITH JUDY," JoAnn Armstrong played the starring role of Judy.

Then the Junior-Senior Prom. Decorations were in the theme of the Stork Club--some high class entertainment from Hollywood was scheduled (but was replaced at the last moment!) All in all, it was a grand affair!

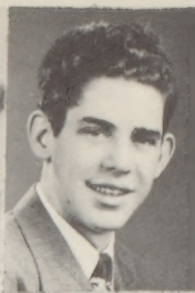

In the fall of 1948, most of us turned up as dignified seniors. We sure felt high and mighty. Jim Williams, Beverly McConnell, Merna Morrow and Donna Eaton were the class officers. A few of the memorable occasions in sports during this year was: John Luttrell's 48 foot shot during the Chenoa basketball game, and Dale Tucker winning recognition in the All-State lineup and receiving the Most Valuable Player Trophy. Marilyn Banks was selected to be our representative of the D.A.R.'s. Then came our Senior play, "STRANGE BOARDERS". Donna Eaton played the starring role of Cordelia.

The juniors entertained us at their gala prom and then---those last days of our career here in CCHS, Baccalaureate, Class Night, and finally, last but not least, Graduation.
